Guidelines

- Adults 18 years and older are eligible.
- Entries must be original and created within the last 2 years. No kits or computer-generated art and no pieces previously entered in an Arts By The Shore show may be submitted.
- 2-Dimensional work must be no larger than 35" x 42", including frame and matting (securely framed and wired), ready to be hung—no exceptions. No saw tooth hangers.
- Constructive Design artwork must not be heavier than 50 pounds.
- No artwork may be removed before the show is over, and no artwork may be left in the building after the show ends.
- No artwork may be sold in the Recreation Center. Transactions are between the artist and the buyer after the artwork is removed from the show.
- An artist may enter 3 pieces in each of the 2 main divisions, 2 Dimensional and Constructive Design.

Judge

Virginia Ryan (Bunny) Lauzon studied at the Art Institute of Chicago, Columbus School of Art (Columbus, GA), and the University of Kansas (Lawrence). She also studied portraiture with Jean Pilk in Arlington, VA. As a military wife, she has traveled and painted extensively throughout the US, Japan, Europe, and Korea.

Currently, Bunny is the in-house restorer for Fiddler's Art Gallery, Wilmington, NC. In 2007, she was commissioned to do the Oyster Festival poster and t-shirt design logo for the Brunswick County Chamber of Commerce.

Bunny resides in Shallotte (NC) and maintains a studio there.

Awards

Monetary awards will be given to Best of Show and 1st Place in each category. 2nd and 3rd Places in each category will receive ribbons only. Merit and Honorable Mention Awards are at the discretion of the judge and will receive ribbons. A Memorial Award will also be given. The public will vote for People's Choice Award in each major category.
